

Rolf Jostad (Panelist)

Rolf M. Jostad completed his Masters in Engineering Management at St. Cloud State University (SCSU) in 2009. Rolf is on the Adjunct Faculty of St. Cloud State University teaching innovation and technical management courses for the Executive Master of Engineering Management (EMEM) cohort program and is an ASEM Certified Professional Engineering Manager (PEM). Rolf is also the chair person for the advisory committee for the EMEM cohort program for SCSU. Rolf is currently working for Medtronic plc, a global medical device manufacturer as a Director of Engineering directly responsible for the Engineering Development Services which is part of the R&D group within Cardiac Rhythm and Heart Failure business unit. Rolf is a member of the American Society for Engineering Management (ASEM) and a Life Member of the National Eagle Scout Association (NESA).

