Serving Engineering Managers Worldwide

ASEM eNews

December 2017

President's Note

Season's Greetings,

As we move into the New Year, we do so with purpose and with you in mind. I would like to use this opportunity to remind you of the exciting IAC being planned at Coeur d'Alene in 2018. The title of the conference will be "Bridging the Gap Between Engineering and Business". You will not want to miss this conference. So plan and prepare early.

Many people spend time at the beginning of each year making New Year's resolutions. Make volunteering to assist the ASEM in continuing to expand and develop as an organization that speaks for the engineering management profession one of your New Year resolutions. Volunteering can be in the form of participation on a working group or engaging in a membership drive. A membership drive can consist of communicating with colleagues the value of becoming a member of the ASEM.

As always, your voice is important to me, please let us know how we can continue to serve you.

Happy New Year!
